Dear Mom & Dad,

I enjoyed talking to you on the phone last night and reading your letter of the 6th today. It is partly cloudy and mild today so I'm looking forward to my daily 5 mile jog in a few minutes.

The gym has lockers and towels so it is convenient to change & run from here (Naval Support Activity) to the NATO base & back; about 3 miles. Then I run a couple of miles around the track.

Vickie is getting back from her trip to Siena tomorrow night & since this exercise analysis is over I won't have to work late and we can do more together.

Next Monday (22nd) evening we're planning to take the ferry to Palermo & then drive around Sicily for a few days. Love, Jim
